Re: Review of Federal Communications Commission's Triennial Review Order Regarding Unbundling Requirements for Individual Network Elements
PSC 2003-00379

Dear Mr. Dorman:

Enclosed for filing in this case are BellSouth's Responses to CompSouth's Second Set of Data Requests to BellSouth dated January 14, 2004. Also enclosed for filing are BellSouth's Supplemental Responses to Items 3, 8, 22, 55b and 62 of AT&T's First Set of Interrogatories.

The Supplemental Responses to Items 22 (Attachments 3a and 3b) and 62 (Attachments 5a and 5b) of AT&T's First Set of Interrogatories contain proprietary information. BellSouth requested proprietary protection of this information in its Petitions for Confidentiality filed with the Commission on November 10, 2003, and December 22, 2003, respectively. The information in Item 22 relates to revenue, line counts and vertical services penetration percentages for specific retail and/or wholesale services. Item 62 contains commercially sensitive market data depicting the number of access lines at a customer premise location. BellSouth reiterates its request for protection of this information and references its previously filed Petitions for Confidentiality as noted above.

The Response to CompSouth's Item 30 and the Supplemental Response to AT&T's Item 55b reference URLs. For the Commission's easy reference BellSouth downloaded the information and burned it on the enclosed CD.

The Supplemental Response to AT&T's Item 3 references exhibits to testimony filed in Georgia. A copy of those exhibits is attached to the Response.

The proprietary information, as well as an edited version of the information, is provided to the Commission. The proprietary information also is provided to parties who have signed the Regional Protective Agreement.

A paper copy of this letter, certificate of service, and service list are provided to parties of record and is forwarded via e-mail to parties for whom we have an e-mail address. BellSouth will provide a paper copy or a copy on CD-ROM of the filing to anyone who advises they wish to be served in that manner.

Sincerely,

Cheryl R Winn
