Dear Mr. Wuetcher:

My name is Johnny Hobdy and I am the Allen County Judge-Elect. Our current Fiscal Court is at an impasse on a board appointment on the Allen County Water District Board. It is my understanding they will wait out the ninety days and let the Public Service Commission make the appointment. I wish the PSC would allow the incoming court to settle this appointment, however if they choose to fill the position, I would like to recommend Wayne Jackson.

Mr. Jackson is a retired truck freight company driver, who now farms in Allen County. He is a founding member of Cedar Springs #2 Volunteer Fire Department and currently serves as its chief. If Mr. Jackson could be appointed, he would also be a member from the only magisterial district that currently has no member on the board.

Hopefully the commission will give strong consideration to Mr. Jackson as a board member on the Allen County Water District Board.

Thank you for your time and consideration. If you need to reach me my phone number is 270-622-8972. I anxiously await your response.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Johnny Hobdy". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Johnny Hobdy, County Judge Elect
