

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

REQUEST TO FILL VACANCY ON GREEN-)
TAYLOR WATER DISTRICT'S BOARD OF) CASE NO. 2011-00026 COMMISSIONERS OF)

O R D E R

Taylor County Judge/Executive Eddie Rodgers has advised the Commission in writing of the existence of a vacancy on Green-Taylor Water District's ("Green-Taylor District") Board of Commissioners due to the expiration of the term of Water District Commissioner Terry Mardis. Mr. Mardis's term ended on June 30, 2010. No action was taken to fill the vacancy prior to September 28, 2010. On January 11, 2011, the members of Taylor County Fiscal Court unanimously voted for the reappointment of Mr. Mardis.

KRS 74.020(4), which addresses the appointment of members to the boards of commissioners of water districts, states:

Vacancies shall be filled by the same appointing authority which is empowered to make the original appointment. Vacancies resulting from cause other than expiration of the term shall be filled for the unexpired term only. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 67.710, a vacancy resulting from the expiration of a term shall be filled by the Public Service Commission if, within ninety (90) days following the expiration of the term, the vacancy has not been filled by the appropriate county judge/executive with approval of the fiscal court.

As the position has been vacant for more than 90 days, the Commission has the statutory duty and the exclusive authority to fill it. While a county judge/executive and a county fiscal court may reach agreement on the vacant position, they lack authority to fill the vacancy once it has remained unfilled for more than 90 days. Any action on their part to appoint and approve a candidate at that time has limited legal effect and constitutes only a recommendation to the Commission.¹

The Commission recognizes that deference should be accorded to local elected officials when filling vacancies on a water district's board of commissioners. We have previously declared:

While the Commission has exclusive authority to fill vacancies that exist for 90 days or more, we will defer to the local elected officials in those instances where the local appointing and approval authorities have reached agreement on a candidate. Absent unusual circumstances that raise clear concerns about an agreed candidate's qualifications, such deference is appropriate because local officials generally have a better understanding of the candidates' qualifications and of the water district's needs and because these officials are directly accountable to the water district's customers through the ballot box.²

Accordingly, the Commission finds that a proceeding should be initiated to determine whether Mr. Mardis should be reappointed. We will limit the scope of our review to determining whether Mr. Mardis meets the constitutional and statutory requirements for the office of water district commissioner.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. This proceeding is initiated to fill the vacancy on Green-Taylor District's Board of Commissioners that was created through the expiration of the term of Terry Mardis.

2. Green-Taylor District, Taylor County Judge/Executive Rodgers, Taylor County Fiscal Court, and Terry Mardis are made parties to this proceeding.
