ORDER

On November 15, 2012, the Commission advised the parties of our intent to incorporate the record of Case No. 2011-00138¹ into the record of this proceeding and directed the parties to file any objections to this action within 20 days. Jessamine-South Elkhorn Water District (“Jessamine-South Elkhorn”) subsequently filed an objection to the Commission’s action to the extent that “the Commission[’s Order] did not state therein that irrelevant issues and information contained in the record of Case No. 2011-00138 would not be injected into and made subjects of inquiry and debate in this proceeding.”² The Intervenor did not object to the Commission’s proposed action.

On December 14, 2012, Jessamine-South Elkhorn moved for incorporation of Capital Improvement Program - System Storage,³ a study of Jessamine-South Elkhorn’s water storage needs that the water district submitted in Case No. 2006-00156.⁴ It has subsequently referred to the study in its responses to several requests for information.⁵ The Intervenors have not submitted a response to the motion.

Having reviewed Capital Improvement Program - System Storage and the record of Case No. 2011-00138 and finding that the study in question and the documents in Case No. 2011-00138 are relevant to the issues presented in this proceeding and their incorporation into the record would assist the Commission in ruling upon Jessamine-South Elkhorn's application, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Jessamine-South Elkhorn's Motion to Incorporate by Reference is granted.
2. The study Capital Improvement Program - System Storage is incorporated by reference into the record of this proceeding.
3. The record of Case No. 2011-00138 is incorporated by reference into the record of this proceeding.
