RE: *YMax Communications Corp. Revision to Kentucky Tariff No. 2, Switched Access Services
Case No. 2012-00257

Dear Mr. DeRouen:

Verizon is an intervenor in the referenced investigation, which YMax has attempted to end by withdrawing the tariff filing that AT&T protested. AT&T has not opposed YMax's request to close the proceeding, but has made clear that it will not pay for any end office switching "services" that YMax bills, but does not actually provide.

Verizon, likewise, does not oppose YMax's withdrawal of its tariff that would have contradicted dispositive FCC orders and regulations, but Verizon will not pay YMax for services it does not provide if YMax attempts to bill for them.

Please confirm your receipt of this filing by placing the stamp of your Office with the date received on the enclosed additional copy and return it to me in the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope.
