RE: Case No. 2014 – 00106

In re the matter of:

Russell Murphy, Jr., Complainant;
Inter-County Energy Cooperative and Kentucky Utilities, Defendants.

Dear Mr. Derouen:

This letter is to confirm I received a photocopy of a letter dated March 25, 2014, sent by you to James L. Jacobus, the President and CEO of Inter-County Energy Cooperative Cooperation.

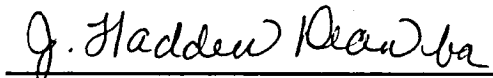

I am simply writing a letter to acknowledge that I will be representing Inter-County Energy Cooperative in this matter. I would ask that any correspondence be sent to me and Mr. Jacobus, if that is not too much of an imposition.

I also want to advise that as of the date I received this, I was due to leave for spring break. The letter itself does not require any specific response be filed by my client. I would ask that you confirm if there is such a date and time which a response is due. Alternatively, I would be happy to file a motion for the Commission to provide me either an extension or alternatively a scheduling order regarding this complaint.

I will be back in the office on April 7, 2014. If contact needs to be made with me prior to that time frame, please call my office and speak with Barbara Ayers or Sheilah Wells.

Sincerely,
