Re: Comcast Business Communications, LLC - Informational Filing - Continued Use of Fictitious Name

Dear Ms. Bell:

As previously reported, CBC, an authorized telecommunications carrier in Kentucky,<sup>1</sup> recently completed an internal restructuring and converted from a corporation to a limited liability company. In conjunction with that transaction, CBC was required to submit updated paperwork to continue using the fictitious name "Comcast Long Distance," under which its services have been marketed for many years. Enclosed, for your information, is a copy of the authorization from the Secretary of State for Comcast Business Communications, LLC, ("CBC") to continue using its trade name "Comcast Long Distance."

CBC provided notice to the Commission of its reorganization and name change on February 11, 1006. The trade name paperwork enclosed with this filing is pro forma in nature and does not entail any changes to the trade name under which CBC has always marketed its services to its customers. Accordingly, CBC does not believe prior Commission approval or customer notification of the continued use of its fictitious name is required. To the extent, however, that Commission approval is required, CBC respectfully requests such approval. To the extent that customer notification is required, CBC respectfully requests a waiver on the grounds that it would be needlessly confusing to customers and unnecessarily burdensome for CBC to notify its customers of the continued use of its long-established trade name.

I have enclosed a duplicate of this letter, four (4) copies and a self-addressed, postage-paid envelope. Please date-stamp the duplicate upon receipt and return it in the envelope provided. We trust this letter provides the information required in this matter. Should the Commission have any questions or believe that any further information is required, please contact Katherine Barker Marshall at (202) 342-8519.

Respectfully submitted,

COMCAST BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS, LLC
