AND NECESSITY TO OPERATE AS A RESELLER OF) 94-228 LONG DISTANCE SERVICES THROUGHOUT THE STATE) OF KENTUCKY)

O R D E R

On June 20, 1994, Long Distance Services, Inc. ("Long Distance Services") filed its application with the Commission seeking a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications services as a reseller within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Long Distance Services is a Delaware corporation proposing to resell the services of carriers currently certified within the Commonwealth of Kentucky in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in its tariff. Long Distance Services does not seek authority to provide operator-assisted telecommunications services.

Long Distance Services employs no transmission or reception telecommunications equipment or facilities in the performance of its services, and all facilities, equipment, and networking will be provided by the underlying carrier. Long Distance Services will not construct any new facilities in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The information provided by Long Distance Services demonstrates its financial, managerial, and technical capability to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications service. The proposed rates filed June 20, 1994 should be approved as the fair, just, and reasonable rates to be charged.

The Commission, having considered the application, the information provided by Long Distance Services, and being otherwise sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that:

1. Long Distance Services be and it hereby is granted authority to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications services within the Commonwealth of Kentucky on and after the date of this Order.

2. Long Distance Services shall comply with the provisions of the Orders in Administrative Case No. 323.¹

3. Long Distance Services' authority to provide service in this Commonwealth is strictly limited to those services described in this Order and Long Distance Services' application.

4. The rates and charges proposed by Long Distance Services are hereby approved as filed on June 20, 1994.

5. Within 30 days from the date of this Order, Long Distance Services shall file its tariff sheets in accordance with 807 KAR 5:011.
