

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

DUO COUNTY TELEPHONE COOPERATIVE)
CORPORATION, INC. TARIFF FILING TO) CASE NO. 95-090 WAIVE INSTALLATION CHARGES DURING) ITS SPECIAL PROMOTION)

O R D E R

On January 23, 1995, Duo County Telephone Cooperative Corporation, Inc. ("Duo County") filed a promotional tariff wherein it proposed to waive the non-recurring installation charges for advanced calling, custom calling, and touch calling. Duo County proposed a promotional period from March 1, 1995 through September 1, 1995.

After review, the Commission finds that the tariff filing should be approved. The Commission will require Duo County to file at the end of the promotional period the amount of revenues lost from the waiver, the level of additional sales received during the promotion, and the expected annual revenues from these sales. In addition, at the end of one calendar year following the special promotion, Duo County should file the amount of revenues lost and the amount of actual additional revenues received from the promotional sales.

The Commission, having been sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that:

1. Duo County's promotional offering to waive non-recurring installation charges for advanced calling, custom calling, and touch calling is approved.

2. Duo County shall file by October 31, 1995 the amount of revenues lost, the level of additional sales received, and the projected annual revenues from the promotion. By October 31, 1996, Duo County shall file the amount of revenues lost and the amount of additional revenues received from the promotional sales during the calendar year following the special promotion.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 15th day of March, 1995.
