ORDER

Complainants have petitioned for rehearing of the Commission's Order of June 21, 2011 and for the opportunity to provide additional evidence in this matter. Their petition contains no new evidence nor does it state how the additional evidence that they seek to present will affect the findings set forth in our Order of June 21, 2011. Moreover, none of the evidence that the Complainants have identified in their petition appears to be evidence that could not with reasonable diligence have been offered at the hearing previously held in this matter.

Accordingly, the Commission HEREBY ORDERS that Complainants' petition for rehearing is denied.
