

45A.415 Specifications.

- (1) The local public agency shall use specifications which assure the maximum practicable competition to meet the agency's needs.
- (2) A specification which describes a product which is proprietary to one (1) company may be used only when:
 - (a) No other kind of specification is reasonably available to describe requirements; and
 - (b) Such specification includes language which specifically permits an equivalent product to be supplied. Such specification shall include a description of the salient characteristics of the product.

Effective: January 1, 1980

History: Created 1978 Ky. Acts ch. 110, sec. 84, effective January 1, 1980.