UTILITY REGULATORY COMMISSION

CASE NO. 8129

1. Complainants are telephone subscribers of Continental Telephone Company of Kentucky located in the Arlington and Milburn exchanges in Carlisle County. In return for their tariff of $12.70 per month private line without mileage charges, they are able to call toll-free to other subscribers in the Arlington, Milburn and Bardwell exchanges of Continental. Those subscribers residing in the Bardwell exchange, which is also in Carlisle County, pay the same rates and can call toll-free to everyone Complainants can and can in addition, call toll-free those subscribers located in the Cunningham exchange of the Western Kentucky Rural Telephone Cooperative Corporation.
2. The failure to provide the same calling area to Complainants and to other subscribers located in the Arlington and Milburn exchanges as is provided to those in the Bardwell exchange constitutes an "unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage" or "an unreasonable difference between localities" in violation of KRS 278.170 and is "unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory" within the meaning of KRS 278.260.

3. Attached and made a part of this Complaint is a petition signed by all of the Complainants.

WHEREFORE, Complainants ask the Commission to hold a hearing on this complaint and to order Continental Telephone Company to provide them the same service provided to the subscribers located in the Bardwell exchange.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURA L. MURRELL
Attorney for Petitioners

The following names of the Milburn and Belington exchange, below request the same service from Continental Telephone of Ky., to give toll free service to the Cunningham exchange 642., which is the same service that the Barwell exchange 628, has presently got.

At the present we are paying the same charges
as the 628 exchange & having to pay long distance toll to the Cunningham exchange.
