In the Matter of:

THE COMPLAINT OF MAE WHICKER, )
ET AL. )
VS. ) CASE NO. 8957
WHITE HALL WATER DISTRICT )

SHOW CAUSE ORDER

On August 8, 1983, the A. Myers Davis Development Company filed with the Commission a complaint against White Hall Water District ("White Hall") which questioned the service connection fee currently being charged by White Hall.

Thereafter on October 18, 1983, Mae Whicker, et al., filed an additional complaint with the Commission against White Hall concerning their inability to obtain water service in the Shady Hills and Pineur Acres Subdivisions.

Investigation and subsequent correspondence between the Commission and White Hall have not resulted in the resolution of these two complaints.

Pursuant to KRS 278.260 and upon its own motion, the Commission HEREBY ORDERS that this matter be and it hereby is set for hearing on the 14th day of February, 1984, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, in the Commission's offices at Frankfort, Kentucky.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that White Hall shall appear and give testimony, if any it can, concerning its reasons for not providing water service to the Shady Hills and Pineur Acres Subdivisions and justification for charging its current service connection fee.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 20th day of January, 1984.
