

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

APPLICATION OF CONTEL OF KENTUCKY, INC.)
FOR WAIVER OF COMMISSION RULE) CASE NO. 91-381

O R D E R

On October 21, 1991, Contel of Kentucky, Inc. d/b/a GTE Kentucky ("Contel"), filed a motion pursuant to Commission Regulation 807 KAR 5:001, Section 14, seeking authority from the Commission for a waiver of Commission Regulation 807 KAR 5:011, Sections 3(4)(e) and (5)(c), which requires that all tariff filings contain the signature of the officer authorized to issue such tariffs on the front cover page and all succeeding pages of the tariff. Contel, in support of the motion, states that its present corporate organization, resulting from the merger with GTE Corporation and the change in physical location of corporate officers, makes it difficult to comply with the above-referenced regulation because the officer authorized to sign tariffs is located in Tampa, Florida, whereas the tariff department is located in Durham, North Carolina.

The Commission finds that Contel should be granted the deviation for good cause shown and that the motion should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Contel's motion seeking a waiver of 807 KAR 5:011, Sections 3(4)(e) and (5)(c), be and hereby is granted.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 6th day of December, 1991.
