

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

APPLICATION OF CTG TELECOMMUNICATIONS,)
INC. FOR A CERTIFICATE OF PUBLIC)
CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY AS A) CASE NO. 91-286 RESELLER OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS)
SERVICES WITHIN THE STATE OF KENTUCKY)

O R D E R

On August 9, 1991, CTG Telecommunications, Inc. ("CTG Telecommunications") filed an application seeking a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide long-distance intrastate interLATA resold telecommunications services within the Commonwealth of Kentucky. On October 3, 1991, the Commission ordered CTG Telecommunications to file additional information. CTG Telecommunications filed its response on November 20, 1991.

As a result of CTG Telecommunications' response to the request for additional information, the Commission initiated an investigation into the unauthorized provision of service as Case No. 92-042.¹ CTG Telecommunications and Commission Staff entered a settlement agreement which the Commission adopted on April 3, 1992.

¹ Case No. 92-042, CTG Telecommunications, Inc., Alleged Violation of KRS 278.020 and KRS 278.160.

CTG Telecommunications is organized as a corporation in the state of Nevada. The financial, managerial, and technical capabilities of CTG Telecommunications have been demonstrated in the application. CTG Telecommunications does not own and/or operate any transmission facilities in any jurisdiction. CTG Telecommunications will resell tariffed services offered by AT&T Communications of the South Central States, Inc., MCI Telecommunications Corporation, and US Sprint Communications Company.

CTG Telecommunications has requested authority to provide interLATA services only. Should CTG Telecommunications decide to offer intraLATA services, CTG Telecommunications should file revised tariff sheets in compliance with the Orders in Administrative Case No. 323 Phase I,² prior to providing intraLATA service.

The Commission, having considered the application of CTG Telecommunications, its supporting exhibits, the information provided by CTG Telecommunications in response to the Commission's Order, and being otherwise sufficiently advised, hereby finds that CTG Telecommunications should be granted authority to provide long-distance intrastate interLATA resold telecommunications services within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

² Administrative Case No. 323, An Inquiry Into IntraLATA Toll Competition, An Appropriate Compensation Scheme for Completion of IntraLATA Calls by Interexchange Carriers, and WATS Jurisdictionality, Phase I, Order Date May 6, 1991.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

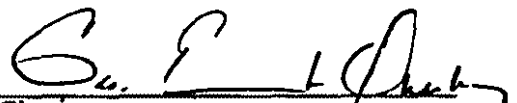

1. CTG Telecommunications be and it hereby is granted authority to provide long-distance intrastate interLATA resold telecommunications services.

2. CTG Telecommunications requested authority to provide interLATA services only. Prior to the provision of intrastate intraLATA resold telecommunications services, CTG Telecommunications shall file revised tariff sheets defining CTG Telecommunications' intention to provide such services in compliance with the Orders in Administrative Case No. 323, Phase I.

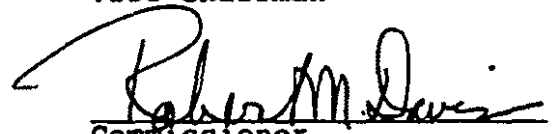

3. Within 30 days from the date of this Order, CTG Telecommunications shall file revised tariff sheets in accordance with 807 KAR 5:011 to conform to the restrictions and conditions of service contained herein.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 5th day of May, 1992.
