AND NECESSITY TO OPERATE AS A RESELLER OF) 94-224 LONG DISTANCE SERVICES THROUGHOUT THE STATE) OF KENTUCKY)

O R D E R

On June 2, 1994, Network Long Distance, Inc. ("Network Long Distance") submitted its application with the Commission seeking a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide intra-state, long-distance telecommunications services as a reseller within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Network Long Distance is a Delaware corporation proposing to resell the services of carriers currently certified within the Commonwealth of Kentucky in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in its tariff. Network Long Distance is not seeking authority to provide operator-assisted telecommunications services.

Network Long Distance employs no transmission or reception telecommunications equipment or facilities in the performance of its services, and all facilities, equipment, and networking will be provided by the underlying carrier. Network Long Distance will not construct any new facilities in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The information provided by Network Long Distance demonstrates its financial, managerial, and technical capability to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications service. The proposed rates as submitted June 2, 1994 should be approved as the fair, just, and reasonable rates to be charged.

The Commission, having considered the application, the information provided by Network Long Distance, and being otherwise sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that:

1. Network Long Distance be and it hereby is granted authority to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications services within the Commonwealth of Kentucky on and after the date of this Order.

2. Network Long Distance shall comply with the provisions of the Orders in Administrative Case No. 323.¹

3. Network Long Distance's authority to provide service in this Commonwealth is strictly limited to those services described in this Order and Network Long Distance's application.

4. The rates and charges proposed by Network Long Distance are hereby approved, as filed on June 2, 1994.

5. Within 30 days from the date of this Order, Network Long Distance shall file its revised tariff sheets in accordance with 807 KAR 5:011.
