Dear Madam / Sir,

Please consider this letter as a request for intervention.

We understand that there has been an application to construct and operate a new facility for cellular radio telecommunications. This facility would include a 160 foot tower to be built on or near Duke Road in Lexington, Kentucky.

First, we, as residents of the community, feel that this tower, highly visible, would be detrimental to the character of the community, and, very possibly, lower the value of the residential homes.

Secondly, even though it has not been proven, it is suspected, in the medical community, that microwave waves from these towers are detrimental to person health, possibly cancer causing.

To this end, my wife and I object to the building of this tower in this neighborhood.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas McLaren
