We do not want a tower built on Hopewell Road close to our estate line. This will lower the value of our property
& I think you understand the fact.

RE: Case No.: 96-224

Dear Sirs:

I am a property owner of said property (20 acres) identified as 5315 Old Heady Road. This parcel is part of the original 5303 Old Heady Road tract (see attached map).

I would like to adamantly oppose to the location of a lattice tower at the current site as staked off at 4550 Hopewell Road. This proposed site is on our property line and will provoke monitorial damage to the value of both parcels of property as identified above.

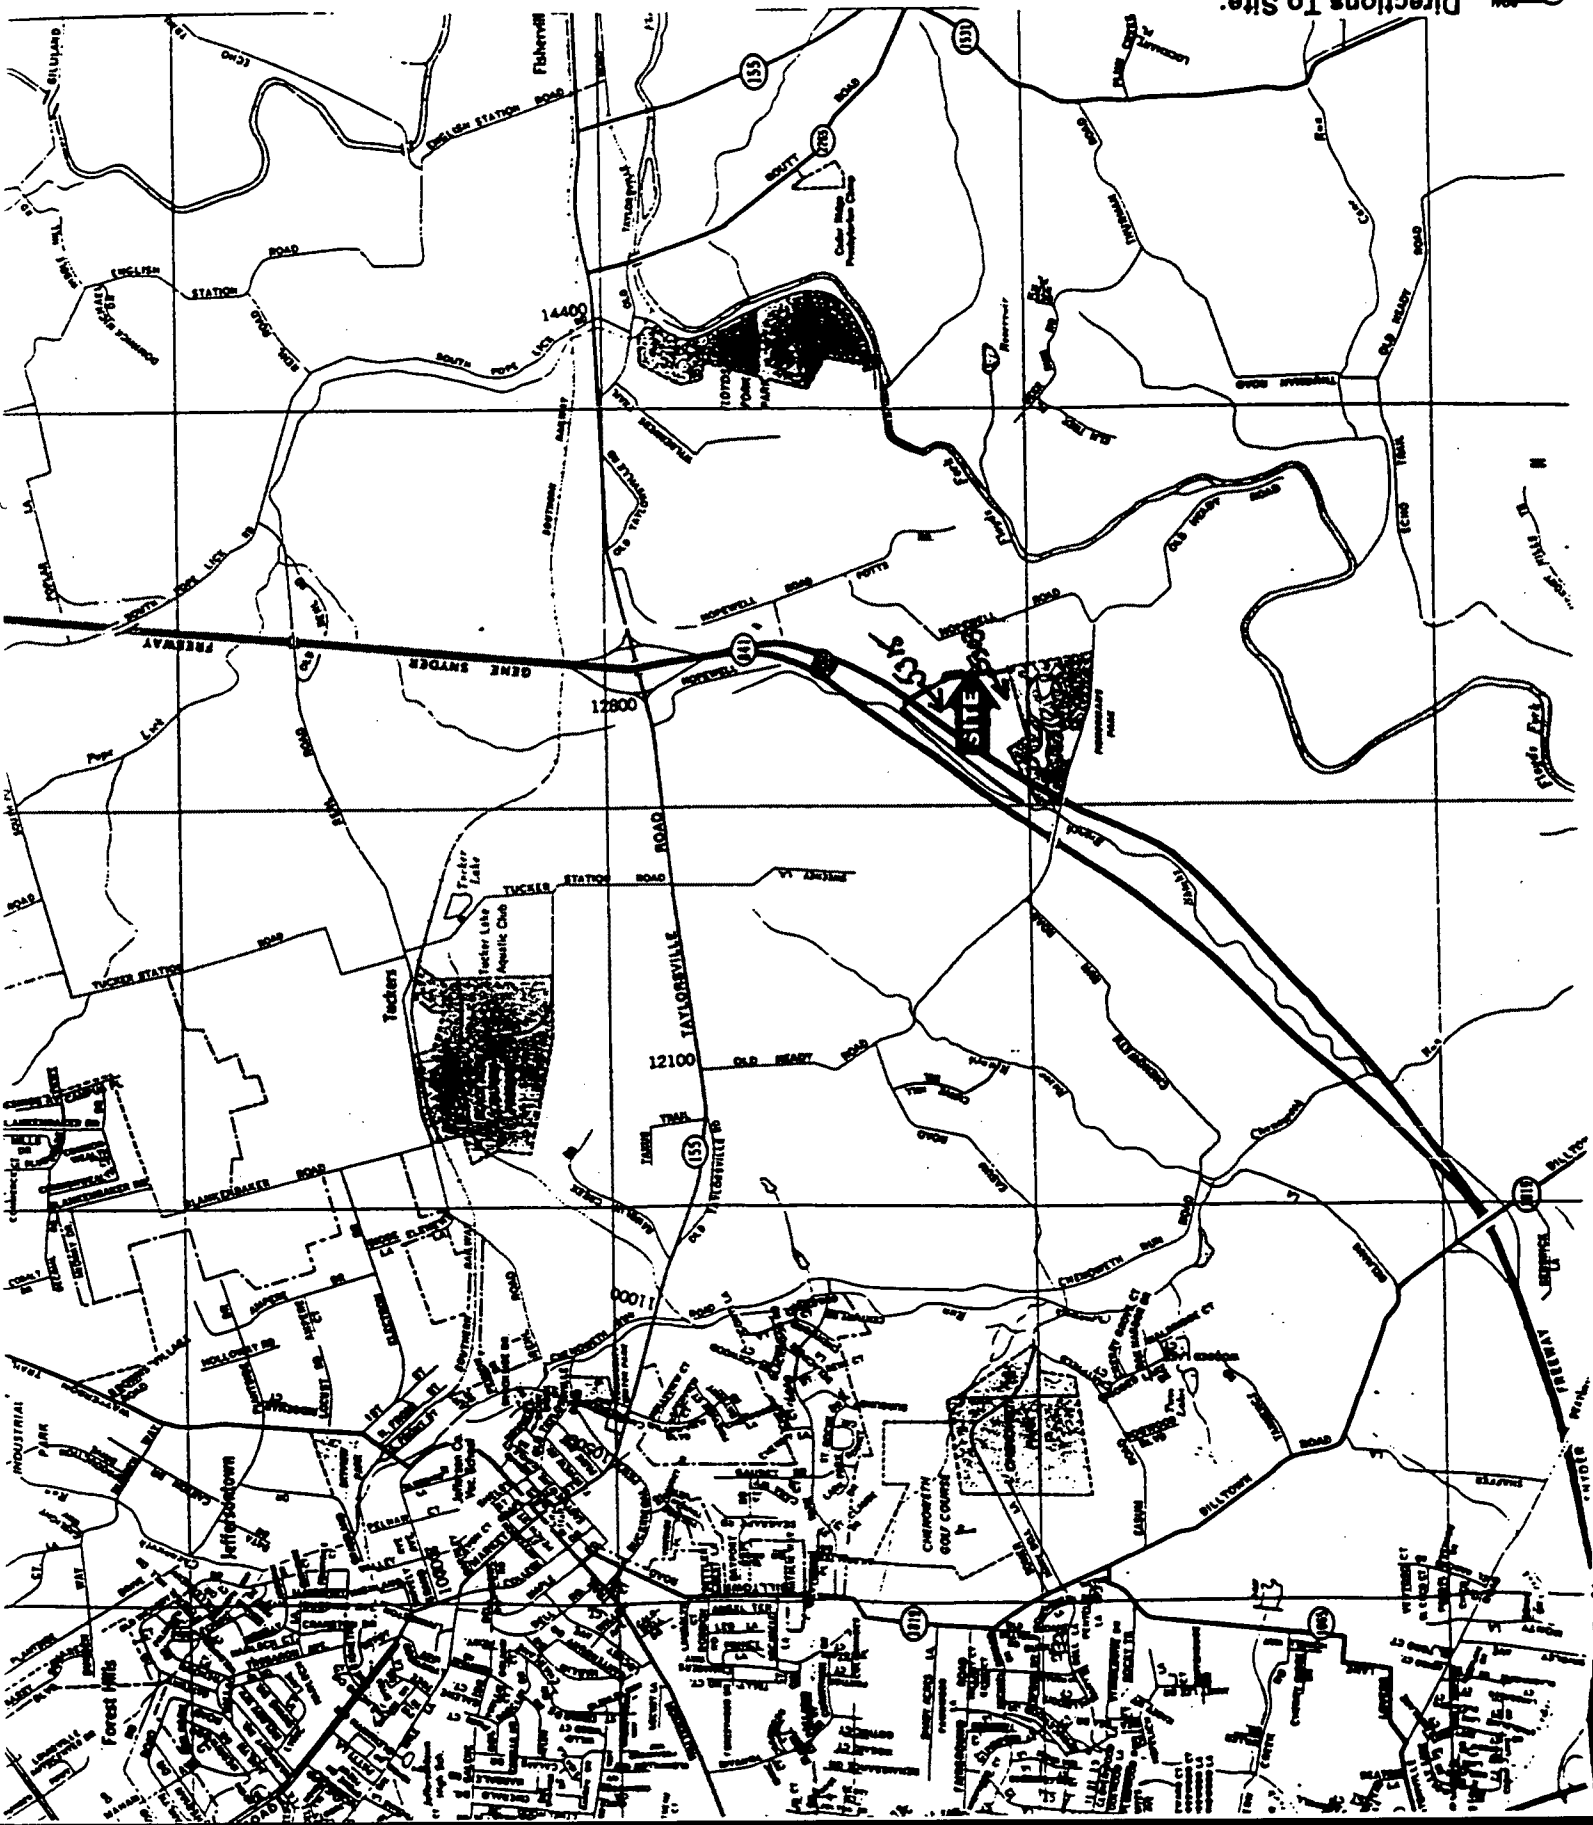

This property area is zoned residential which does not include any commercial or industrial use.

I would appreciate your interest in protecting residential area's from commercial ventures.

Sincerely,

Calvin L. Carrithers
