O R D E R

On January 11, 2001, Pilgrim Telephone Company, Inc. ("Pilgrim") moved to strike portions of the brief of BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth") and portions of the transcript from the December 8, 2000 hearing. Pilgrim asserts that BellSouth's brief contained erroneous statements regarding Pilgrim's interconnection agreements with other carriers. Pilgrim also asserts that portions of the transcript describing content restrictions in the billing and collection tariff were erroneous.

On January 12, 2001, the Commission entered an Order in this proceeding addressing issues disputed between the parties. The Commission appropriately weighed all evidence presented by BellSouth and Pilgrim. The Commission gave the weight due to the evidence as presented and will not strike from the record evidence which one party alleges is erroneous.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Pilgrim's motion to strike is denied.
