v.)	CASE NO. 2004-00437
)
LOUISVILLE GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY)
DEFENDANT)

ORDER

On November 4, 2004, Charles A. Reed filed a formal complaint against Louisville Gas and Electric Company ("LG&E") alleging that LG&E had erroneously charged a tampering fee to his account. Mr. Reed requested that LG&E remove the tampering fee.

By letter dated November 19, 2004, LG&E notified the Commission that it had satisfied Mr. Reed's complaint and that Mr. Reed would contact the Commission and withdraw his complaint. By letter dated November 30, 2004, Mr. Reed informed the Commission that LG&E had removed the tampering fee and that he wished to withdraw his complaint.

The Commission finds that LG&E appears to have satisfied Mr. Reed's complaint and finds good cause to grant Mr. Reed's motion to withdraw his complaint. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this case is dismissed as satisfied and removed from the Commission's active docket.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 6th day of January, 2005.
