

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

PURCHASED WATER ADJUSTMENT)	CASE NO.
OF NORTHEAST WOODFORD WATER)	2005-00368
DISTRICT)

O R D E R

On September 12, 2005, Northeast Woodford Water District (“Northeast Woodford”) applied for approval to adjust its rates pursuant to the purchased water adjustment procedure. KRS 278.015 and 807 KAR 5:068.

The Commission, having reviewed the record and being sufficiently advised, finds that:

1. Northeast Woodford purchases water from the city of Versailles (“Versailles”).
2. Versailles notified Northeast Woodford that Versailles’ wholesale water rate would increase effective October 1, 2005.
3. On September 27, 2005, the Commission established Case No. 2005-00369¹ to investigate the reasonableness of Versailles’ proposed adjustment to its wholesale rate and suspended the effective date of the proposed adjustment for 5 months until February 28, 2006.
4. As the Commission has suspended the effective date of Versailles’ proposed wholesale water rate adjustment, Northeast Woodford’s wholesale water supplier has not increased its wholesale water service rate. Northeast Woodford, therefore, has not met the conditions necessary to adjust its rates pursuant to KRS 278.015 and Administrative Regulation 807 KAR 5:068.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. This case is dismissed without prejudice.
2. Should the Commission authorize Versailles to adjust its wholesale water service rate, Northeast Woodford may apply for an adjustment of its water service rates pursuant to KRS 278.015 and Administrative Regulation 807 KAR 5:068.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 12th day of October, 2005.
