DEFENDANT	)

O R D E R

On March 1, 2006, Deborah Brown Gould filed with the Commission a formal complaint against AT&T Communications of the South Central States, LLC (“AT&T”) alleging that she is not a customer of AT&T and that it charged her $40.44 for “line usage” on October 22, 2005. By Order dated March 8, 2006, the Commission directed AT&T to satisfy or answer the complaint. On March 20, 2006, AT&T filed its answer with the Commission. In its answer, AT&T states that, on or about March 10, 2006, a credit was issued to the account of the Complainant in the amount of $40.44 as satisfaction of the complaint.

Pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 12(5), upon an offer of satisfaction, a complainant’s acceptance of the offer, and the Commission’s approval, no further proceedings are necessary. It appears from the record that AT&T has satisfied the complaint. As of the date of this Order, the Commission has received nothing from the Complainant to indicate whether she accepts or rejects AT&T's offer of satisfaction.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Within 10 days of the date of this Order, Complainant shall file with the Commission notice of her acceptance or rejection of AT&T's offer of satisfaction.

2. If no such filing is received, the complaint shall be considered satisfied, and this case shall be closed and removed from the Commission's docket.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 30th day of March, 2006.
