O R D E R

Windstream Kentucky East, LLC and Windstream Kentucky West, LLC (“Windstream”) and Insight Phone of Kentucky, LLC (“Insight”) were asked by Commission Staff to file a proposed list of stipulated facts in order to facilitate the Commission’s resolution of this matter.

The parties, as of the date of this Order, have been unable to agree completely on the facts to be stipulated in this matter. Windstream, however, has requested that the parties be granted an opportunity to reach an agreement on the facts to be stipulated in this case.<sup>1</sup> An agreement on the facts is necessary to the proceeding because Insight and Windstream have indicated that there are no material facts in dispute, a hearing is not necessary, and the parties would like to address the matters through briefs.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Within 30 days of the date of this Order, the parties shall jointly file a clear and concise list of stipulated facts. The list shall include the facts upon which the parties disagree, the reason for the disagreement, and whether the facts upon which the parties disagree are material to the case.

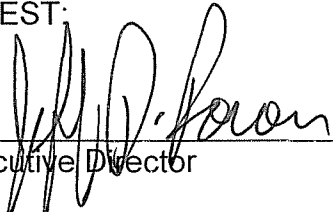

2. The filing shall contain a statement as to whether the parties believe a hearing is necessary or whether the matter may be addressed through the filing of briefs.

3. The parties shall include a proposed procedural schedule or briefing schedule, whichever is appropriate to the joint filing.
