On June 13, 2011, East Kentucky Power Cooperative, Inc. ("EKPC") applied to the Commission for approval to obtain a trust indenture as replacement of its existing mortgage with the Rural Utilities Service and the National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation. In order to conduct an appropriate review of EKPC's application, the Commission finds that a procedural schedule should be established.

Each response shall be answered under oath or, for representatives of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or a governmental agency, be accompanied by a signed certification of the preparer or person supervising the preparation of the response on behalf of the entity that the response is true and accurate to the best of that person's knowledge, information, and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry.

4. Any party shall make timely amendment to any prior response if it obtains information which indicates that the response was incorrect when made or, though correct when made, is now incorrect in any material respect.

5. For any request to which a party fails or refuses to furnish all or part of the requested information, that party shall provide a written explanation of the specific grounds for its failure to completely and precisely respond.

6. Any party requesting intervention status in this proceeding shall accept the procedural schedule set forth in the appendix to this Order.

7. Any party filing testimony shall file an original and seven copies.

9. At any public hearing in this matter, neither opening statements nor summarization of direct testimony shall be permitted.

10. Any objections or motions relating to discovery or procedural dates shall be filed upon four business days' notice or the filing party shall explain, in writing, why such notice was not possible.

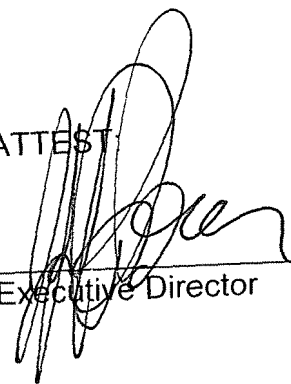

11. Motions for extensions of time with respect to the schedule herein shall be made in writing and will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.
