In the Matter of:

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

CECIL RAY MILLS)

COMPLAINANT)

CASE NO. 2005-00361

v.)

MARTIN COUNTY WATER DISTRICT)

DEFENDANT)

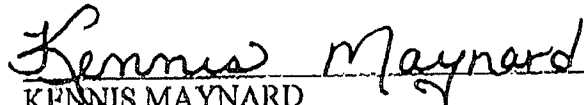

ANSWER

Comes now the Martin County Water District, by and through counsel, and for their Answer to the formal complaint filed on September 2, 2005 states as follows:

1. That the Martin County Water District acknowledges that there is a problem with the water pressure to Cecil Ray Mills' home;
2. That the Martin County Water District is in the process of replacing and relocating lines so that water pressure to Mr. Cecil Mills will be in compliance;
3. That the Martin County Water District expects that the water pressure to Mr. Cecil Ray Mills will be in compliance no later than 30 days from the date of this Answer;

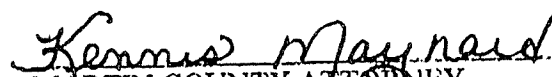

WHEREFORE, the Martin County Water District respectfully requests the Public Service Commission grant them 30 days from the date of this Answer in which to comply with the pressure going to Cecil Ray Mills' home.

Respectfully submitted,

KENNIS MAYNARD
