PUBLIC SERVICE
COMMISSION

Interim Response of Windstream Communications
To Motion for Emergency Relief

Windstream Communications (identified as Windstream Corporation in Petitioners' Motion) for its Interim Response to the Petitioners' Motion for Emergency Relief states:

1. At 1:17 p.m. on Friday, February 23, 2007 the Communications Workers of America and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers served by e-mail their Motion for Emergency Relief on counsel for Windstream Corporation.
2. The Motion seeks injunctive relief prohibiting Windstream from carrying out its previously announced plan to reduce its Kentucky workforce effective February 28, 2007.
3. Due Process requires that Windstream be given a reasonable period to respond to the Petitioners' Motion. The reduction was announced on December 2, 2006. Petitioners can not deprive Windstream of this right by waiting until the eleventh hour to file their motion.
4. Windstream expects to file its Response to the Emergency Motion no later than the close of business, Tuesday, February 28, 2007 and should be permitted until then to do so.

Respectfully submitted,

WINDSTREAM COMMUNICATIONS
