Re: BLC Management, LLC, d/b/a Angles Communications Solutions, v.
BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc., d/b/a AT&T Kentucky
PSC 2007-00262

Dear Ms. O'Donnell:

On June 27, 2007, BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc., d/b/a AT&T Kentucky ("AT&T Kentucky"), received service of the complaint filed by BLC Management, LLC, d/b/a Angles Communications Solutions ("Angles"), in the above-captioned case. In its complaint, Angles seeks a commission order that would prevent AT&T Kentucky from exercising its contractual rights to discontinue providing service to Angles effective July 12, 2007, based on Angles' failure to pay substantial sums which are past due. AT&T Kentucky denies that Angles is entitled to any relief. Further, AT&T Kentucky strongly disagrees with Angles' characterization of the matters currently pending before the Tennessee Regulatory Authority.

AT&T Kentucky will file a formal response to the complaint on or before July 17, if that is acceptable to the Commission. In the interim, AT&T Kentucky will refrain from terminating service to Angles in Kentucky on July 12, 2007.

The original and ten (10) copies of this letter are enclosed for filing. I am serving a copy of this letter on counsel for Angles.

Sincerely,

Mary K. Keyer
