Re: Case No. 2008-00287

Dear Ms. Stumbo:

Pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 4(2), I have enclosed affidavits from the newspapers verifying that Duke Energy Kentucky's notice of hearing was published as set forth in Commission's August 22, 2008 Order. The notice was published as follows:

Newspaper	Publication Dates
Grant County News	September 25, 2008
The Kentucky Enquirer	September 22, 2008
The Falmouth Outlook	September 23, 2008
Gallatin County News	September 24, 2008

Please date-stamp the two extra copies of this transmittal letter and return to me in the envelope provided. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

 Dianne B. Kuhnell
 Senior Paralegal

GCHS marching band takes third runner up

As Grant County took the field in preliminary competition on Sept 20 at Northern Kentucky Festival of Bands Competition, hosted by Campbell County High School, energy resonated from the field.

They were ready and prepared. Taylor Nicholson, field commander, took command of the field and Grant County marched its way to first place in 4A preliminary competition. They also took captions in best percussion, best overall music, best overall effect and best visual.

"The hard work these kids have put in is paying off for them, I'm proud of them", director Duwayne Dale said when preliminaries were over and he headed back to congratulate the band on their performance.

As finals competition began, Grant County and nine other bands prepared to take the field. Grant County entered the field at 9:15 p.m., the second to last band to perform for the evening. The band finished the competition as third runner up.

"We're very pleased with their progress and our kids are excited about any opportunity they have to represent our community and Grant County Schools in a positive way," Dale said.

Grant County Marching Band will travel to Beechwood High School on Sept. 27 and will perform at 2:45 p.m. in the preliminary competition.

Indians. Pendleton County got its offense started early. Only five minutes in to the game, Matt Feltner showed why he is one of the top assist leaders in NKY. Off a corner, Feltner played a perfect ball which was headed into the net by Corey Workman. Minutes later, Holy Cross, had its chance to get even but wasn't able to score on a breakaway created by a nice pass from the mid-field. With 10 minutes left in the first half, Workman scored another goal to put Pendleton County up 2-0, when he dribbled through the Holy Cross defense and finished on a nice shot from 20 yards out.

Pendleton County came out to start the second half, just as strong as they ended the first through on offense. The stellar defensive effort continued in the second half until the Cougars were finally able to strike with a pair of goals as they held the Cats offense in check with a 2-0 victory.

"We played against a solid team that was able to pull out a tough win," said senior Matt Feltner. "Our defense was as solid as its been all season, but we couldn't convert anything offensively, and you have to credit their defense for that."

This week, the Wildcats will look to rebound on Tuesday as they travel to face Covington Latin. Pendleton County currently has a 5-3-1 record and are second in goals scored in Region 12 with 35.
