On February 10, 2011, the Commission granted the request of Smart Connections, Inc. ("Smart Connections") for designation as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier ("ETC").¹ Smart Connections was authorized to receive low-income support and not high-cost support. On June 13, 2011, Smart Connections petitioned the Commission for withdrawal of its ETC status.

The state commission shall permit an eligible telecommunications carrier to relinquish its designation as such a carrier in any area served by more than one eligible telecommunications carrier. more than one eligible telecommunications carrier, the state commission shall require the remaining eligible telecommunications carrier or carriers to ensure that all customers served by the relinquishing carrier will continue to be served, and shall require sufficient notice to permit the purchase or construction of adequate facilities by any remaining eligible telecommunications carrier. The state commission shall establish a time, not to exceed one year after the state commission approves such relinquishment under this paragraph, within which such purchase or construction shall be completed.

The Commission finds that, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 214(e)(4) above, there is more than one ETC in the area of relinquishment and those carriers have sufficient facilities for the provision of service.

The Commission being sufficiently advised, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Smart Connections' request to withdraw as an ETC is granted. This case is now closed and removed from the Commission's docket.
