Subject: RE: Tariff Filing of Fleming-Mason to Amend Its Service Charge - Case No. 2013-00142

Dear Faith:

In response to your question, and subject to motion to withdraw without prejudice the service charge change requested in Section IX, 3 e. of the February 27, 2013 tariff filing in this matter, the Attorney General has reviewed the matter and has no objection to the Commission addressing the remaining proposed tariff changes in its final Order.

As directed, I have copied Mr. Suit and all counsel for the OAG on this matter. We appreciate Commission staff's time and consideration of this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Jennifer Black Hans

Counsel –

In the event the Commission grants Fleming-Mason's August 27, 2013 motion to withdraw without prejudice, the service charge change requested in Section IX, 3 e. of its February 27, 2013 tariff filing in this matter, does either party have an objection to the Commission addressing the remaining proposed tariff changes in the Order?

When responding to this e-mail, please include all others in your reply.

Thank you.
