Subject: atmos rate change

As a senior living in Kentucky any time there is an increase in cost to live here I am concerned. I understand that prices go up, however when I see on the news that there is a surplus of natural gas and in fact out west they are burning off the gas because they do not have a place to store it I wonder WHY an increase is needed???? It would seem the the US has one of the largest natural gas and oil deposits in the shale out west so why do the utilities need an increase?? Its time to stop taking the easy road of giving gas and oil companies what they want and instead looking out for the consumer which I believe is the commissions mandate.I will also be sending copies of this to my legislators. I live in Shelbyville KY. David J. Mayhew
