Members of the PSC,

I recently sent a request to the PSC asking that the PSC compare my power outages, serviced by Inter-county RECC, to my nearest neighbor, service by KU electricity. My address is North 1660 Wallace Wilkinson Blvd. Liberty, KY, and I receive Inter-county RECC service. My closest neighbor is two-tenths of a mile away at 158 or 194 Casey Drive Liberty, KY 42539, serviced by KU electricity. My understanding is that the PSC is reluctant to get involved unless inferior service can be proven. I asked that this comparison be made by the PSC back in July and I have never received a reply. I have a home at 5564 Leafwood Drive Cincinnati, Ohio that I have owned for 15 months and I have never had an outage. I have a home in Lexington, KY, and my tenant cannot recall the last outage there. Yet, if you look at the power outages that I have at my home in Liberty, KY, you will see that I have had numerous outages every year.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

It has never really been explained to me why a local business man acquired two homes that were serviced by Inter-county RECC and he now has KU service???? I have asked this question several times as to why homes that were serviced by Inter-county for the past 40+ years suddenly became KU property????

How many of the members of the PSC would like to be watching your favorite ballgame only to watch your TV service fail? Your neighbor, only two-tenths of a mile away, is watching the game under a different provider. Would you like to be told that you couldn't switch, and you had to keep the service you currently had, or would you like to receive the service your neighbor had? This is 2014, and we have choices as to who our cable provider is, cell phone providers, and I should not have to tolerate inferior electrical service!

I ask once more that the members of the PSC compare my service to that of my nearest KU neighbor, and that the comparison of the outages be sufficient to grant me KU service for myself and my five neighbors located within the city limits of Liberty, KY. I close by saying that I prefer that the PSC will rule in my favor, and that I do not have to go further with my efforts.

Sincerely,

Russell Murphy Jr.
