Re: City of Danville, Case No. 2014-00392

Dear Mr. DeRouen:

In the City of Danville's Response to the Commission Staff's First Request for Information, the City filed hard copies of the revised cost-of-service study, as requested by Commission Staff in Item 13. The City inadvertently failed to file electronic copies of the revised cost-of-service study, which is now being filed to the attached compact disc. There are four files that are contained on the attached compact disc. No changes were made to the other underlying spreadsheets related to the cost-of-service study, such as "flow of funds", that were previously filed and served electronically, and as such, those spreadsheets are not being reproduced.

Sincerely,

M. Todd Osterloh
