COMMISSION STAFF'S SECOND REQUEST FOR INFORMATION
TO COLUMBIA GAS OF KENTUCKY

Columbia Gas of Kentucky ("Columbia"), pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, is to file with the Commission the original and ten copies of the following information, with a copy to all parties of record. The information requested herein is due within ten days from the date of this request. Responses to requests for information shall be appropriately bound, tabbed and indexed. Each response shall include the name of the witness responsible for responding to the questions related to the information provided.

Each response shall be answered under oath or, for representatives of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or a governmental agency, be accompanied by a signed certification of the preparer or person supervising the preparation of the response on behalf of the entity that the response is true and accurate to the best of that person's knowledge, information, and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry.

Columbia shall make timely amendment to any prior response if it obtains information which indicates that the response was incorrect when made or, though correct when made, is now incorrect in any material respect. For any request to which Columbia fails or refuses to furnish all or part of the requested information, Columbia shall provide a written explanation of the specific grounds for its failure to completely and precisely respond.

Careful attention should be given to copied material to ensure that it is legible. When the requested information has been previously provided in this proceeding in the requested format, reference may be made to the specific location of that information in responding to this request. When filing a paper containing personal information, Columbia shall, in accordance with 807 KAR 5:001, Section 4(10), encrypt or redact the paper so that personal information cannot be read.

1. Provide the California Standard Tests – the Participant Test, the Program Administrator Test, the Ratepayer Impact Measure, and the Total Resource Cost Test individually for the High-Efficiency Appliance Rebate Program, the Home Energy Audit Program, and the Modified Low-Income High Efficiency Furnace Replacement Program, and for Columbia’s Demand Side Management program as a whole. If the test results are less than one, explain why Columbia believes the program should be continued.

2. For the High-Efficiency Appliance Rebate Program provide:

- a. The original estimate of the annual number of participants.
- b. The original estimate of the cost per participant.
- c. The actual annual number of participants and average cost per participant for each year the program has been active.
- d. Discuss the differences between the original estimates and the actual annual participants and average costs per participant and explain any significant differences.

3. For the Home Energy Audit Program provide:
 - a. The original estimate of the annual number of participants.
 - b. The original estimate of the cost per participant.
 - c. The actual annual number of participants and average cost per participant for each year the program has been active.
 - d. Discuss the differences between the original estimates and the actual annual participants and average cost per participant and explain any significant differences.

4. For the Low-Income High Efficiency Furnace Replacement Program provide:
 - a. The original estimate of the annual number of participants.
 - b. The original estimate of the cost per participant.
 - c. The actual annual number of participants and average cost per participant for each year the program has been active.
 - d. Discuss the differences between the original estimate and the actual annual average cost per participant, and explain any significant differences.
