ORDER

On September 1, 2017, Liz Childress, on behalf of ResComm Security Systems (“ResComm”), tendered for filing a Complaint against Cincinnati Bell Telephone Company. On information and belief, Ms. Childress is not an attorney licensed to practice law in Kentucky.

No person may engage in the practice of law in Kentucky without first obtaining a license to practice.

The practice of law is any service rendered involving legal knowledge or legal advice, whether of representation, counsel or advocacy in or out of court, rendered in respect to the rights, duties, obligations, liabilities, or business relations of one requiring the services.¹

It includes, as Kentucky’s highest court held in Kentucky State Bar Association v. Henry Vogt Machine Co., 416 S.W.2d 727 (Ky. 1967), the representation of a business before a state administrative agency.

¹ Kentucky Supreme Court Rule 3.020.

[A]ny attorney who is not licensed to practice in the State of Kentucky and who seeks to represent a client or employer before this Commission, must engage a member of the Kentucky Bar Association. It logically follows that if an unlicensed attorney may not represent a client before this Commission, neither may a layman.²

Commission regulations incorporate these sentiments. 807 KAR 5:001, Section 4(4), states in part: "A person shall not file a paper on behalf of another person, or otherwise represent another person, unless the person is an attorney licensed to practice law in Kentucky or an attorney who has complied with SCR 3.030(2)."

Based on the above, the Commission finds that ResComm's Complaint fails to comply with Kentucky law and cannot be accepted for filing. We further find that Rescomm should be granted ten days from the date of this Order to have an attorney licensed to practice law in Kentucky file a signed Complaint in this case. ResComm's failure to have an attorney file a timely Complaint in this case will result in dismissal without prejudice of ResComm's Complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. The Complaint filed by Rescomm is rejected for filing.
2. Within ten days of the date of this Order, ResComm shall have an attorney licensed to practice law in Kentucky file a signed complaint. Failure to have an attorney file a signed complaint in this case will result in dismissal without prejudice of the Complaint and its removal from the Commission's docket without further Order.

² Administrative Case No. 249, Practice Before the Commission by Attorneys Non-Licensed in the Commonwealth of Kentucky (Ky. PSC June 15, 1981) at 2.
