Additions at Ballard-Carlisle Public Library

The collection of books at the Ballard-Carlisle Public Library keeps growing. They have added over 250 pre-school titles. If you have a preschool aged child, they have your reading needs covered. Come see the new additions to the collection. They also have started a new program called 1000 Books before Kindergarten for children who have not yet entered kindergarten. Readers earn certificates for every 100 books they read. At 1000 books they receive a t-shirt that shows they have read 1000 books. The library will also publish photos on Facebook and in your local newspapers (with parental permission).
