PUBLIC SERVICE
COMMISSION

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in response to a notice of filing with the kenton county courts in regards to a gas main break.

Document were file by the Commonwealth of Kentucky Public Service Commission.

Hicks Plumbing and concrete, LLC is closed, out of business and bankrupt.

As to the complaint. The information provided in this document is entirely false.

1.) Hicks Plumbing nor I or any business that I have ever owned or operated has ever owned or rented a backhoe. It is alledge that equipment causing damage was a backhoe.

2.) Matthew Hicks worked for Hicks Plumbing for less than 40 hours in a span of several months. He was not employed when this alledged incident occurred.

Further more he has never operated equipment for Hicks Plumbing or any other company.

12/30/2019

Matthew Hicks is physically and mentally handicapped and has never been on a jobsite unsupervised. Matthew Hicks has never been a representative of Hicks Plumbing nor a point of contact.

3.) Hicks Plumbing and Concrete Inc. ~~is a~~ was a family owned and operated company. Our entire family was on vacation when the alleged incident occurred.

4.) The first that I had heard about this ~~alleged~~ alleged incident was 6 months after it allegedly happened.

5.) I have never received any correspondence from Duke energy, nor a phone call.

6.) The underground plumbing at 7280 Rimrock lane had been delayed by the builder. Digging by Hicks Plumbing and Concrete Inc. did not occur until weeks after this alleged ~~incident~~ incident.

I believe you were given false information and I find no merit to this.

Regardless the business has no money for an a Horney and ~~me~~ neither do I. The business nor I have any money to give you for the fine.

I am currently an over the road coast to coast truck driver and can not afford to miss a week or more of work to appear at your hearing.

Sincerely,

Ronald Hicks
