David and Jill Wrye, Residential and Farm land owners in Ballard County, Kentucky, whose land lies within the subject area of this particular case, hereby file their objections to the proposed project. Complainants have only been made aware of this hearing within the last two days and have had no time to gather evidence to refute the Petitioners claims and purported evidence. However, Complainants do believe that not only will the project detrimentally affect the value of their personal residence at 2382 Gage Road, Kevil, Ballard County, Kentucky, and their 1 1/2 acre vacant building lot on Gage Road, but also their Farm property at 3545 Old Hinkleville Road, Kevil, Ballard County, Ky, 42053, will also add to soil erosion on their farm, disruption to wildlife habitation, and the displeasing asthetic effect of such project inside the desired rural residential areas. From my understanding, we are not the only owners in the proposed project area who have the same mindset.

We sincerely ask that our concerns will be taken into consideration at the time of this hearing. The "published notice" of this hearing was done in a publication to which we do not subscribe and we question how many in the project area do as well.

Thank you.

David Wrye
