Comments:

Bluegrass Water has operated the Central States Water District for multiple years. I pay more for water in New Concord than I paid for the same service in St. Louis County, MO. In the 25+ years I lived in Missouri I was never under a boil order, not once. There have been multiple, multiday boil orders or complete outages this year - More than a dozen. Bluegrass isnt making improvements to the system in my area. They dont even have a certified system employee. I dont believe theyve done enough with their current investments to warrant an increase but if they get an increase, we should at least get metered systems so we can pay for the water we use, not a flat rate.
