Re: Michael Wayne Marnhout vs. Louisville Gas and Electric Company
CN 2026-00079

Dear Ms. Bridwell:

Please find attached and accept for filing Louisville Gas and Electric Company's ("LG&E") notice of satisfaction and motion to dismiss in the above-referenced case. LG&E is also seeking a remand of the data responses the Commission issued in its May 5, 2026 Order.

Please contact me if you have any questions concerning this filing.

Sincerely,

NOTICE OF SATISFACTION AND MOTION TO DISMISS OF LOUISVILLE GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

Louisville Gas and Electric Company (“LG&E”), by counsel, respectfully asks the Kentucky Public Service Commission (“Commission”) to dismiss with prejudice the Complaint of Michael Wayne Marnhout (“Complainant”) because LG&E has fully satisfied the Complaint.

Due to a technical issue with the Complainant’s AMI meter, automated readings of his gas consumption were not being reported to LG&E’s systems for purposes of billing from March 2025 to November 2025. Upon a manual investigation of the meter in November 2025, LG&E was able to obtain a reading of the index of the meter and determined that the Complainant was not billed for 3,271 ccf of gas amounting to an underpayment of approximately $3,628.62.

Beginning in December 2025, the Complainant’s account was corrected and he agreed to an installment plan to pay his outstanding balance requiring the Complainant to make twelve monthly installment payments at zero percent interest. The Complainant was enrolled in autopay at the time but then cancelled his autopay enrollment on January 2, 2026. Complainant did not pay his next bill, which was due on January 14, 2026. This triggered a default of the installment plan resulting in the full amount becoming due and owing, consistent with the installment plan’s terms. Subsequently, the Complainant re-enrolled in autopay on January 31, 2026 and in February 2026, the full balance due for the entire uncollected amount related to the Complainant's 2025 unbilled gas usage plus current charges was paid through autopay. Complainant filed this Complaint stating that the payment of the full amount he owed at one time caused him significant hardship.

LG&E's Customer Commitment department has spoken with Complainant. The Complainant understands that he defaulted on his prior installment plan when he missed his regular monthly payment due in January 2026. Nonetheless, LG&E has agreed to enter into a new twelve-month installment plan with the Complainant and to refund the payment Complainant is disputing. Complainant has re-enrolled in autopay and Customer Commitment has expressed the importance of ensuring that payments are made in order to maintain the installment plan. As of May 6, 2026 Complainant has received his refund of the disputed payment and has set up his new installment plan.

Complainant has indicated to LG&E that he is satisfied with this result and agrees that dismissal of the Complaint is appropriate.

WHEREFORE, for all of the reasons set forth above, Louisville Gas and Electric Company respectfully asks the Commission to dismiss the Complaint with prejudice as fully satisfied, remand its Order dated May 5, 2026, and remove the case from the docket.

Respectfully submitted,
