2012 Update
PPL, LG&E / KU
DSM / Energy Efficiency Program Comparative
Kentucky Public Service Commission Case No. 2010-00204

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to the Commission's Order of September 30, 2010 in Case No. 2010-00204, Ordering Paragraph No. 3, Louisville Gas and Electric Company ("LG&E") and Kentucky Utilities Company ("KU") filed on October 31, 2011 its first annual report with the Commission describing and summarizing the effectiveness of the demand-side management ("DSM") programs which PPL entities have implemented in other jurisdictions that differ from the program offered by LG&E and KU to Kentucky customers. In response to the annual reporting requirement set forth in the Commission's Order, PPL Corporation, LG&E, and KU submit the 2012 update.

2012 UPDATE

The DSM and energy efficiency programs provided by PPL Electric are designed to meet established goals in Sections 2806.1 and 2806.2 of Act 129.<sup>1</sup> Pennsylvania electric distribution companies have requested that further development of energy efficiency plans follow the expiration of the current plans which will take place on May 31, 2013. LG&E and KU received approval from the Commission in Case No. 2007-00319 on March 31, 2008<sup>2</sup> and its most recent Demand-Side Management / Energy Efficiency Program Plan ("DSM/EE"), Case No. 2011-00134 on November 9, 2011.<sup>3</sup> Since October 31, 2011 there have been no changes in the DSM programs offered by PPL entities and the KPSC approved the application of LG&E and KU in Case No. 2011-00134. Additional information regarding the referenced DSM Programs such as expansion on regulatory structure and legislation; the history of DSM initiatives; as well as full existing program descriptions can be viewed in the October 31, 2011 PPL Corporation and Louisville Gas and Electric Company / Kentucky Utilities Company DSM / Energy Efficiency Comparative.

The table below reflects the comparative offerings between the Companies.
