SCHEDULE EH-C

CLASSIFICATION OF SERVICE

ELECTRIC HEAT SERVICE

RATE
PER UNIT

APPLICABLE:

Applicable to all commercial and small commercial consumers of the Corporation in accordance with the provisions hereinafter.

AVAILABILITY OF SERVICE:

Available only to commercial consumers of the Cooperative for electric heat. In order for the Consumer to qualify for service under this Schedule EH-C, the Consumer must provide, at no cost to the Cooperative, a separate circuit including switch panel and service entrance to be used for heating purposes only.

This separate circuit will then be metered by the Cooperative separately from the normal service and billed to the Consumer in accordance with the rate hereinafter.

All electrical usage other than heating shall be billed for at the applicable commercial rate consistent with the size and type of load.

Air-Conditioning may be served under this rate schedule only when the air-conditioning is produced in connection with the heating unit. Acceptable units would have to be of the heat exchange (heat pump) type.

The availability of service is also contingent on the established rules and regulations of the Cooperative applicable to this type service.

CHARACTER OF SERVICE:

9-8-61

Single phase, and three phase where available, at available voltages.
