

Agreement between the CUNNINGHAM
WATER DISTRICT AND THE DOGWOOD HILLS GOLF CLUB.

The DOGWOOD HILLS GOLF CLUB of CARLISLE COUNTY, hereafter referred to as the GOLF CLUB is a non profit organization.

The GOLF CLUB is being built through a cooperative effort of the citizens of CARLISLE COUNTY to provide much needed recreation for the citizens of CARLISLE COUNTY and surrounding communities and to provide an enticement for prospective employers to locate within the county.

The CUNNINGHAM WATER DISTRICT, hereafter referred to as the WATER DISTRICT is a municipal water system, owned by the citizens of Cunningham, Kentucky.

Construction of the golf course is to be completed by September 15. The fairways and greens will be seeded before the normal water supply is completed. There will be no water available to provide irrigation necessary to establish a ground cover before winter.

An agreement is hereby entered into between the CUNNINGHAM WATER DISTRICT AND THE DOGWOOD HILLS GOLF CLUB for the CUNNINGHAM WATER DISTRICT to provide water to irrigate the greens and fairways of the DOGWOOD HILLS GOLF CLUB.

This agreement is only for the period of time necessary to establish a sod for the fairways and greens.

The water supplied will only be water in excess of that needed to supply the needs of the customers of the WATER DISTRICT.

The water will be supplied to the GOLF CLUB during high usage hours only if the system can supply the needs of the customers and the needs of the GOLF CLUB. Otherwise the irrigation can only be done during off peak hours.

The rates for this water be the cost of pumping plus 30%. Currently the cost is calculated to be 27.7 cents per thousand and the cost to the GOLF CLUB would be 36 cents per thousand. These rates will have to be approved by the Kentucky Public Service Commission.
