14. ADJUSTMENT RELATIVE TO ERRONEOUS METER

If upon periodic test, request test, or complaint test, a meter in service is found to be more than two percent (2%) fast, additional tests shall be made to determine the average error of the meter. Said tests shall be made in accordance with commission regulations applicable to the type of meter involved. (T)

MONITORING OF CUSTOMER USAGE

At least once annually, the District will monitor the usage of each customer according to the following procedure:

1. The customer's annual usage for the most recent 12 month period will be compared with the annual usage for the 12 months immediately preceding that period.
2. If the annual usage for the two periods are substantially the same, or if any difference is known to be attributed to unique circumstances, such as unusual weather conditions, common to all customers, no further review will be done.
3. If the annual usage differs by three percent (3%) or more and cannot be attributed to a readily identified common cause, the District will compare the customer's monthly usage records for the 12 month period with the monthly usage for the same months of the preceding year. (T)
4. If the cause for the usage deviation cannot be determined from analysis of the customer's meter reading and billing records, the District will contact the customer by telephone or in writing to determine whether there have been changes such as different number of household members or work staff, additional or different appliances, changes in business volume, or known leaks in the customer's service line.
5. Where the deviation is not otherwise explained, the District will test the customer's meter to determine whether it shows an error outside the limits established in Public Service Commission rules and regulations. (T)
6. The District will notify the customers of the investigation, the findings, and any refunds or backbilling in accordance with Public Service Commission rules and regulations. (T)

In addition to the annual monitoring, the District will immediately investigate usage deviations brought to its attention as a part of the ongoing meter readings and billing process or customer inquiry.
