Re: In the Matter of the Joint Application of Airview Estates, Inc. and Elizabethtown Utilities, LLC (now Airview Utilities) for approval of the transfer of wastewater treatment plant to Elizabethtown Utilities (now Airview Utilities), LLC, Case No. #2005-00022

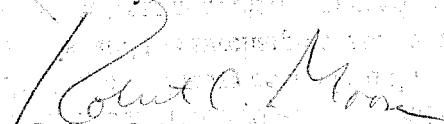

Dear Bob:

The Public Service Commission approved the collection of a surcharge for purposes of making certain repairs to the Airview Estates wastewater treatment plant now owned by Airview Utilities, LLC located in Hardin County, Kentucky. The surcharge was approved in Case No. 2003-00494 while the subject wastewater treatment plant was owned by Airview Estates, Inc. Please be advised that the final monthly surcharge was included in the customers' June, 2007 bills, and the surcharge ceased at that time. The construction of the improvements to the subject wastewater treatment plant financed by the surcharge were completed in November, 2007.

The surcharge account was held at the Old National Bank located in Louisville, Kentucky, and has a current balance of $68.58. The Commission's Order of April 28, 2005 entered in Case No. 2005-00022 authorizing the transfer of the Airview Estates wastewater treatment plant to Airview Utilities, LLC (FKA Elizabethtown Utilities, LLC), provided that Airview Utilities, LLC was to abide by certain conditions set forth in Appendix A to said Order. The Order concerning the surcharge does not indicate how any excess funds in the surcharge account are to be administered. Accordingly, Airview Utilities will be transferring the $68.58 remaining in the surcharge account into its operating account, and will maintain same in the operating account until it receives direction from the Public Service Commission on how to administer these funds. The monies are being withdrawn from the surcharge account because they would otherwise be "eaten up" by bank fees.

Please advise me as to how Airview Utilities should administer the $68.58 remaining in surcharge receipts. Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Moore
