Dear Mr. Dorman,

This is in response to the information requested concerning case number 2004-00083.

1. Sedalia Water District has no employees full or part time, all work for the district is contracted.
3. Jackson Purchase Meter Service maintains and is responsible for Sedalia District's business records.
4. Sedalia District's business records are housed at the home office of Karen Ballard, a Jackson Purchase Meter Service employee.
5.
 - a. Eric Young and Karen Ballard are responsible for answering the customers' calls.
 - b. There is a local telephone number listed in the directory and also on customers' bills. This number is forwarded to Eric Youngs cellular telephone. If Eric happens to be away from his telephone there is a recorded message instructing the caller to leave a message or to call Karen's number.
6.
 - a. Sedalia District has three commissioners. None are vacant at this time.
7.
 - a. Customers may call the number listed on their bills or may use the e-mail address.
 - b. Messages left on the cellular telephone are normally checked within minutes of being received.

8. a. To our knowledge there have been no complaints about the lack of an office.
9. a. The estimated annual cost to maintain an office is $7,500 to $8,000.
b. $3,000 for employee salary, $3,600 to rent office space, $1,000 for utilities.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Eric Young". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Eric Young
