RE: Case No. 2005-00186 – AT&T's Response to Information Requests

Dear Ms. O'Donnell:

Enclosed please find AT&T Communications of the South Central States, LLC's response to the Commission's June 22, 2005 Order in the referenced proceeding. That Order required telecommunications utilities with "unlimited calling plans" to respond to information requests appended to the Order. In addition, the Commission has ordered utilities with "unlimited calling plans" to respond to data requests from the Attorney General's Office of Rate Intervention. AT&T's responses to the Office of Rate Intervention are also enclosed.

Five copies of AT&T's response are enclosed. In addition, we are serving one copy to Assistant Attorney General Dennis G Howard, II at the Office of Rate Intervention. Please indicate receipt of this filing by your office by placing your file stamp on the extra copy and returning to me via the enclosed, self-addressed stamped envelope.

Sincerely yours,

AT&T'S RESPONSES TO APPENDIX TO THE COMMISSION'S REQUEST FOR INFORMATION DATED JUNE 22, 2005

Pursuant to the Commission's directive in its June 22, 2005 Order establishing this proceeding, AT&T Communications of the South Central States, LLC ("AT&T") provides the following responses to the questions attached as an Appendix to the Order.

1. Does the utility offer a plan that is described, named, or marketed as "unlimited"? If yes, identify and describe the plan and provide copies of the tariff sheets on which the plans can be found.

Response:

As announced on July 22, 2004, as a result of changes in federal regulatory policy governing local telephone service, AT&T is no longer competing for residential or small business local and standalone long distance customers. Although AT&T has stopped actively marketing to attract new customers, it does sell to customers who contact AT&T and request service. Below is a list of plans described as "unlimited". The list reflects appropriate tariff references and copies of the tariff sheets are provided in Attachment A.

2. If the utility has an “unlimited” plan, are there use restrictions or other limitations on the plan? If yes, describe these restrictions and reference the utility’s tariff.

Response:

The plans may contain limitations on the types of calls that are unlimited. However, there are no limitations on the number of calls or minutes of calling for the types of calls included in the plans.

The description of the types of calls permitted under the plans is shown below:

Usage must be consistent with business voice services and may not include the following:

1. Call center applications including, but not limited to auto-dialers

3. Any use not consistent with business voice services

Any usage in excess of 5,000 minutes per month per line shall be presumed to be not consistent with voice applications.

AT&T All In One Advantage Plan

Section 7, page 29

3. How and when are customers or potential customers notified of the limitations on the unlimited plan? Describe the notification.

Response:

Customers are informed about plan restrictions both pre-order and post-order. During pre-order activities AT&T representatives provide rates and terms and conditions to customers verbally. For post-order activities the customers are sent written confirmation of the services purchased, including any plan details and restrictions.

4. If third parties (agents, telemarketers, consignees, etc.) market, advertise, or otherwise offer end-users the utility's unlimited plan, explain how those "marketers" are required to verify compliance with the notice requirements.

Response:

AT&T does not use third parties to market, advertise or otherwise offer its unlimited plans. As noted in response to Request 1, for nearly a year, AT&T has not been actively marketing to attract new customers but continues to sell to customers who contact AT&T for available services. However, for other inbound calls where vendors may be used, AT&T regularly reviews methods and procedures with the vendors through monitoring and calibration sessions.

5. Assuming a customer has subscribed to an "unlimited" plan that has use limitations, is the customer notified when the limitations are exceeded? If yes, how is the customer notified?

Response:

None of AT&T's unlimited plans impose use limitations other than the type of use, e.g., residential voice or business voice. For example, a customer subscribed to a plan that permits unlimited residential voice calling may make unlimited voice calls, without limitation. There are no limitations on the number of calls or the number of minutes used to make the calls. The only exception is the AT&T Personal Network Unlimited Weekend Calling option that offers interstate and intrastate dial station calls all day Saturday and Sunday up to 1,000 minutes per month (this plan has not been available to new customers since 3/10/2000.)

6. How and when customers are notified that changes have been made to the plan?

Response:

Customers are notified directly of any changes, usually by bill message or letter, that would alter the provisions of the plan. Notice is made at least 30 days prior to the change.

7. Are customers able to check the number of minutes they have used in order to determine if they will exceed the plan's limitations?

Response:

There are no minute limitations as part of any unlimited plan.

8. Explain why the utility markets, names, or describes a plan as "unlimited" when limits on the plan exist.

Response:

As noted in responses above, AT&T does not actively market these plans. These unlimited plans provide customers with unlimited voice calling.

9. Explain how the utility ensures that the unlimited plan is offered and the rates, terms, and conditions of service are applied without discrimination as required by KRS 278.170(1).

Response:

Any customer may enroll in any of the plans (subject to billing availability).

10. Provide summary records of all complaints received by the utility regarding any unlimited plans offered in Kentucky since January 1, 2001. Include the date that the complaint was opened, customer class, description of complaint, description of complaint resolution, and date that the complaint was closed.

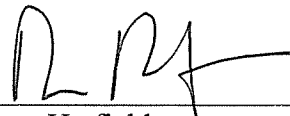

Response:

Since January 1, 2001, AT&T has received two customer complaints regarding the usage associated with AT&T Unlimited Plan. Both complaints involved internet usage inconsistent with residential voice calling and are summarized below. AT&T has received other complaints from subscribers to unlimited calling plans but they are not germane to the Commission's stated concerns. For example, these complaints include such matters as the plan not activating on multiple lines and other order and activation issues. It is AT&T's understanding that the Commission does not want to be burdened with these types of complaints. Nevertheless, if the Commission wishes to see these additional complaints, AT&T will provide summaries of each.

Complaints: Usage associated with AT&T Unlimited Plan & AT&T Call Plan Unlimited Plus
1 Date Opened: 4/27/04 Date Closed: 5/4/04 Class: residence Complaint: Customer's account was restricted for long distance internet usage in violation of voice calling terms of plan, AT&T Unlimited Plan Resolution: Service was restored after customer acknowledged he understood that internet usage was not included in the plan
#2 Date Opened: 7/6/04 Date Closed: 7/6/04 Complaint: Customer claimed was given misinformation that long distance unlimited internet calls were included in plan, AT&T Call Plan Unlimited Plus Resolution: Customer advised that she had already contacted a local carrier to switch away. Apologized for any misinformation and further advised customer that no plan includes long distance internet usage.

Residential Customers who currently subscribe to or select AT&T as their Primary Interexchange Carrier can enroll in this Plan. Customers must enroll in this plan by completing and returning an enrollment form provided by AT&T, calling an AT&T designated 800 number, by enrolling during a marketing contact with AT&T, or via a company-designated Internet address.

Customers must agree to receive a billing statement from AT&T for all their AT&T calls, and agree not to receive individual call details for any calls that are included in the unlimited calling portion of this plan, such as minutes of usage, time-of-day called, and originating or terminating points of call.

This plan is offered in conjunction with the interstate AT&T Unlimited Plan as specified in the AT&T Consumer Service Guide available at <<http://www.att.com/serviceguide/home>>.

The Customer upon written or verbal notice to AT&T may discontinue enrollment in this Plan. In addition, AT&T will discontinue a Customer's subscription to this Plan if the Customer no longer subscribes to AT&T as their Primary Interexchange Carrier. Discontinuance will be effective as of the date that AT&T's records show that the Customer no longer subscribes to AT&T as their Primary Interexchange Carrier.

AT&T intrastate dial station calls are eligible for the plan rates specified below.

A7.23.2 Rates and Charges

The monthly recurring charge will entitle the customer to unlimited direct dialed station interstate and intrastate long distance calls to residential telephone lines that are presubscribed to AT&T as the Primary Interexchange Carrier. The monthly recurring charge applies whether or not a customer makes any calls.

Eligible Dial Station intrastate long distance calls that are not placed to residential telephone lines that are presubscribed to AT&T as the Primary Interexchange Carrier will be rated at $.07 per minute all day, seven days a week in lieu of rates specified in Section A5.3.1.B of this tariff. subscribed to a Primary Interexchange Carrier other than AT&T; customers of AT&T Broadband local telephone service (other than those AT&T Broadband local telephone customers who either are enrolled in this plan or are notified by AT&T Consumer that their AT&T long distance plan is an AT&T Consumer long distance plan); on-line services or Internet access services; wireless devices (e.g., wireless phones or pagers); businesses; and subscribers to a business customer calling plan.

Eligible Dial Station intrastate long distance calls that are not placed to residential telephone lines that are presubscribed to AT&T as the Primary Interexchange Carrier, as defined in the preceding paragraph, will be rated at $.05 per minute for qualified Customers who have hearing and/or speech disabilities. This reduced rate will be provided to only one residential telephone number at a residence and is solely for use by the customer having the speech or hearing disability. To be eligible for this rate, Customers who have been certified as having a hearing and/or speech disability which precludes oral communications and who have and use a telecommunications device for visual communications must present written certification by a licensed physician, audiologist, speech pathologist, or appropriate State or Federal agency, to AT&T's Service Center which serves the residence of the certified Customer.

The duration of calls under this Plan subject to a per-minute charge, which involves a fractional part of a minute, will be rounded up to the next higher full minute.

Rates and Service Charges for Calling Card Calls and Operator-Handled Calls apply as specified in Section A5.3.1.B of this tariff.

The monthly recurring charge is billed and payable in advance. Therefore, customers will have two monthly recurring charges on their first billing statement, one which applies to the billing month in which the customer enrolls in the plan, and one which applies to the next billing month. T

If, at time of enrollment in this Plan, a customer selects AT&T as its primary carrier for intraLATA toll calls, the customer's intraLATA toll calls will be eligible under this Plan once the local telephone company has processed the customer's AT&T IntraLATA toll subscription. If, for any reason, a customer's election of AT&T as the primary carrier for intraLATA toll calls is not made or implemented, the monthly recurring charge for this Plan will still apply even though the customer will not receive the intraLATA toll call benefits of this Plan.
