REQUEST: State whether your company has changed any tariffs applicable to plans described, named or marketed as "unlimited", as previously identified in your responses to the Commission's first data request, since the date of the Commission's first set of Data Requests, and if so, please attach/enclose copies of same.

RESPONSE: Yes. All seven residential and all three business BellSouth Long Distance ("BSLD") unlimited plans identified in the responses to the Commission's first data request have been revised since the date of the Commission's first set of Data Requests. In addition, five of the seven residential plans were grandfathered and, for new customers, were replaced by new plans. To replace the grandfathered residential plans, BSLD has introduced the following four new residential plans:

BellSouth® Advantage Unlimited Plan

Also since BSLD responded to the Commission's first data requests, it has introduced the following two new residential plans:

The terms and conditions of all of BSLD's unlimited plans identified in the responses to the Commission's first data request were amended to remove any usage thresholds and the new plans were filed without any usage thresholds. Thus, all of BSLD's unlimited plans, whether grandfathered or currently available, have no limits on the number of call minutes a customer can make in any given month.

Copies of the current tariff sheets for all BSLD unlimited plans are attached.
