MOTION

Comes now Walter and Goldie Callihan, referred to herein and after as Walter and Goldie. Walter and Goldie move this Commission as set out herein below as follows:

Walter and Goldie move this Kentucky Public Service Commission, referred to herein and after as the KPSC, by motion that the KPSC arrange to come to the home of Goldie and take her video deposition preferably at her house if the KPSC can bring a gasoline or diesel generator to generate the electricity to run their electronic machines, or in the alternate take her deposition in the old Greenup Circuit Courtroom, 2nd floor, in the old Courthouse at Greenup Kentucky. Goldie states that she is unable to make the trip with the stress to Frankfort, Kentucky at said hearing on the 15th day of November, 2005 because of her

Walter and Goldie make their motion for the KPSC with all of it's members and with all of it's legal staff to recuse them from any further participation in the above styled case because there is now pending a Federal lawsuit against same by Walter and Goldie in the U.S. District Court in Ashland, Kentucky for creating a monopoly between the KPSC and Grayson Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, referred to herein and after as the GRECC, under the Sherman Antitrust Act and the Clayton Act.

Walter makes the following Affidavit as follows:

He states that in a telephone conversation with Mr. Gerald Wuetcher, Chief Counsel with the KPSC, approximately ten days ago from this date, Gerald Wuetcher was hostile toward Walter and stated: "...that if Walter made any more phone calls to the Kentucky Governor's Offices or to any other person including Mr. Wuetcher that Mr. Wuetcher and the GRECC would get together and would prevent Goldie and Walter from getting electricity for many years to come." Walter would agree to take a polygraph test on same. And further this affiant saith not.

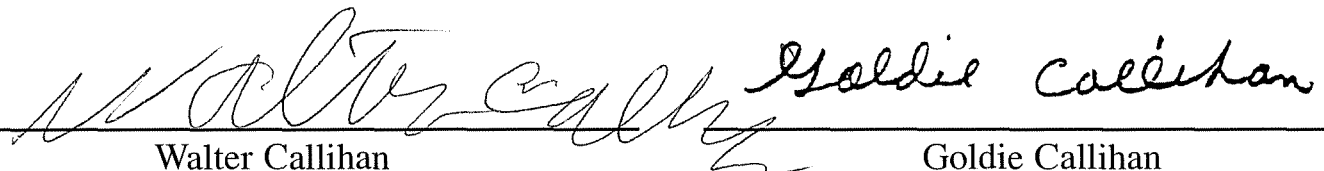

This Affidavit is made under the penalty of perjury this 26th day of October, 2005:
