Re: dPi Teleconnect LLC v. BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.
Case No. 2005-00455

Dear Mr. Derouen:

In response to the Commission's Order dated December 31, 2008, counsel for both parties have conferred and jointly submit the following status report. As an initial matter, there remains outstanding AT&T Kentucky's motion to compel certain discovery responses. This motion has been fully briefed by the parties, and the parties respectfully request a ruling on the motion to compel prior to the evidentiary hearing in this case. Regarding potential hearing dates, given schedules and other commitments, the parties have been unable to identify any mutually acceptable hearing dates in January or February. However, the parties are currently discussing mutually acceptable potential hearing dates in March and April and once such dates are finalized, the parties will advise the Commission accordingly.

Sincerely,

Mary K. Keyer
General Counsel/Kentucky

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

By Order dated December 31, 2008, the Commission required that within 20 days of the date of the Order, Parties were to file a written status report on their ability to proceed to hearing. The status report is to be filed with the Commission by January 20, 2009. The Parties, by counsel, respectfully request a two day extension of time until January 22, 2009, to file the status report.

As grounds for its motion, the Parties state they have been working to complete the status report, but need two additional days to do so.

Agreed To:

Respectfully submitted,
